

8 Dec. 1953

TO: COP

I have studied this report with great interest as I have considerable personal responsibility for many of the items of complaint.

A good many of them are quite justified, and we are only now beginning to make some definite progress toward solutions.

I do sincerely believe, however, that the internal strength we are more and more putting into our CS personnel program is both bringing to light and beginning to solve these problems.

(initialed: LTS)